

Road Project Management Training

Description

Course Description

This program outlines the fundamentals of project management in general with emphasizing on road projects. It also addresses the recent practice in managing road projects and risk management in road construction. It will also highlights the components of feasibility studies of road projects, construction schedule, manpower, equipment, recourses etc.

www.acculearn.co.uk

Course Objective

- An overview of the fundamental of project management
- Managing road construction projects
- Components of feasibility studies of road projects
- Preparing and continuous updating of road project schedules
- Progress report; components, collaborative technique in preparing reports and presentation stuff for road projects
- Cash flow and cost control

Course Outline

- Fundamental of project management
- Needed tools for managing road projects
- Road project budgeting, cash flow, risk management
- Progress reports of road project
- Managing all deferent construction activities in road projects
- Project filing and documentation